ATLANTIC COAST IS STORM SWEEP

Reaches From North Carolina to Maine—Unknown Battleship In Trouble.

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, Dec. 7.—A roaring northeaster today swept the Atlantic coast at sixty miles an hour from North Carolina to Maine. Chief among the vessels ashore was an unknown warship with four funnels and a fighting top, off Ocean City, Md. A fog hides the vessel's identity, while her whistles shrieked for help. Later it was reported she released herself.
High seas prevented other ships from aiding her. The ocean battered down the seawall at Seabright, N. J., and the water flooded the streets and the damage was great. New York bay

ROUMANIA IS NOW READY OTHERS MAY COME SOON

It Is Believed the Balkan States Are Fast Coming to an Understanding That Will Line Them Up With the Allies. Roumania Has Already Announced—Germans Claim the Capture of Lodz With Heavy Russian Losses—The Russians Have Changed Attack South of Cracow and Will Try to Enter Germany Through Silesia—Germans Destroyed an Ancient Monastery—French Claim Their Guns Surpass the Germans.

(By Associated Press.)

London, Dec. 7.—It is announced that progress has been made toward an understanding in the Balkans satisfactory to the allies.

It is believed Bulgaria and Servia will soon end their quarrel.

This situation is considered significant in view of last night's reports that Roumania was ready to join the allies.

The Russians seem about to change their strategy and center their attack south of Cracow and try to enter Germany through Silesia.

(By Associated Press.)

Berlin, Dec. 7.—A German official statement today tells of German successes in the prolonged fighting leading to the capture of Lodz. The Russian losses were heavy.

Air Sovereignty Not Recognized.
(By Associated Press.)
Berne, Switzerland, Dec. 7.—It became known today that when England apologized to Switzerland for the British airmen crossing Swiss territory she made it plain the apology was not a recognition of the sovereignty of the air.

Ancient Monastery Destroyed.

(By Associated Press.)

Paris, Dec. 7.—A Havas dispatch from Petrograd says the thousand-year-old monastery of Lenozya, fifteen miles northwest of Lodz, had been destroyed by the Germans because its angelus was a signal for the Russians. One priest and two monks were killed.

French Guns Surpass Germans.

(By Associated Press.)

Paris, Dec. 7.—An official announcement says the allies continue attacking the few trenches the Germans still hold on the left bank of the Yser. In Champagne the French heavy artillery continues to outshoot the German guns.

WOULD PROBE N. Y. COTTON EXCHANGE

(By Associated Press.)
Washington, Dec. 7.—Representative Tribble of Georgia today introduced a resolution asking a Congressional investigation of the New York cotton exchange and its methods of dealing with the present situation.

SHOPMEN VOTE TO CONTINUE STRIKE

(By Associated Press.)
St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 7.—Four of the organizations involved in the shop-men's strike on the Harriman lines voted to continue the strike, according to announcement made today. The fifth organization has not been heard from.

IT IS a matter of grave consideration these days—
your grocery bills—
and you owe it to yourself to watch the details, figure the cost as you go, and compare your bills.

Compare the cost of groceries at other stores with those bought here, and learn where it is most advantageous for you to trade.

Then consider the quality of the goods you buy.

We will gladly abide by your decision.

WILSON OBJECTS TO REP. GARDNER'S PLAN

Does Not Want Our War Preparedness Probed in Way to Create Unfavorable Views.

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, Dec. 7.—President Wilson today announced that he was opposed to Representative Gardner's plan for an investigation of the preparedness of the United States for National defense, because he thought it an unwise way of handling a "question which might create very unfavorable impressions." President Wilson said he favored a Congressional committee to make a full investigation and have all the facts at their disposal.
